

POWERS IS AGAIN THE WINNING BOY

He Brings Two Heavily Backed Mounts First Under the Wire.

JACKSONVILLE, FLA., December 24.—Powers was the winning boy again to-day, this clever rider putting over two winners, and both times his mounts were heavily backed. His ride on Ethon in the third was a pretty sight, and this horse was unusually heavily backed, the price at the time being 8 to 1. The public was liberally rewarded again when Powers won on Pinto in the fifth. To-day brought in many more visitors from the North, and many more are expected immediately after the holidays. The Christmas handicap will be a big feature for to-morrow. Summary:

First race—six furlongs, maiden—Red Doe, 105 (Goldstein), 3 to 1, first; Sandy Hill, 109 (Page), 9 to 2, second; Greenbridge, 112 (Trozier), 13 to 5, third. Time, 1:47. Melodion, Square Deal, Rosa Arkle, Catfren Lass, Hym Wolf, Preston, Harkaway, Don Asker, Harold, Jr., and Right Guard also ran.

Only One Favorite Wins.—Only one favorite rewarded the talent to-day, and few of the players had any Christmas money left when Rebel Queen, the one good thing slated for all to get back their Christmas money, failed to score in the last race. Local fans, the despised outsider, at 14 to 1, taking the money. The crowd was the largest that has ever attended racing in Tampa, and the play was enormous. In fact, the eight layers were unable to handle all the business in the last three races, and extra time was granted between races. Summary:

Will Play World's Series.

No Danger of Championship Games Being Called Off.

CINCINNATI, OHIO, December 24.—President Hermann, of the Cincinnati club, said here yesterday that "nothing will be allowed to interfere with the usual world's championship series—neither the desire to experiment with a schedule comprising 168 games." He says that personally he does not think the longer schedule will interfere with the playing of the world's series, and that the American League can drag their 154 games out to make the ending of both leagues about the same time.

"The people of the East need not worry about any danger to the world's championship series. It's going to be played next fall, if we have to do it in elect," said Hermann.

BROKAW CONTINUES STORY OF DENIALS

Mr. Brokaw wanted to know from Mr. McInnes about the "Dr. Chapman incident" brought out in Mrs. Brokaw's testimony.

"I never charged my wife with attempting to elope with that physician," declared Mr. Brokaw. "I don't believe anyone would elope with him. He is too effeminate. I never threatened to kill him, but I did tell him that Mrs. Brokaw was my wife, and that I would have him arrested if he did not allow Mrs. Brokaw to continue to ride with me in my automobile, and that I would thrash him if he attempted to interfere with me."

Mr. Brokaw came to the "packed door" feature of the case. "Whenever I tried to say anything important to my wife I always found the door of her room locked on me and a nurse or maid was there. On one occasion I pushed in the door because what I had to speak about was important."

"I never went into my wife's room to call her names," continued Mr. Brokaw. "I often went in to love and kiss her. Of course, that may have bored her."

Mr. Brokaw said he pleaded with his physician at High Point to allow his wife to visit him. He had his push in the door because what I had to speak about was important."

INVITED TO STOP IN PETERSBURG

Big Chicago Democratic Club to Visit Virginia in January.

NEGRO SHARPERS IN JAIL

Elks Are Hosts for Orphans at Christmas Entertainment.

The Times-Dispatch Bureau.

109 North Sycamore Street.

Petersburg, Va., December 24.

Secretary E. L. Quarles, of the Chamber of Commerce, has forwarded an invitation to the Cook County Democratic Club, of Chicago, to stop over in Petersburg and accept the hospi-talities of the chamber on their tour through Virginia and the South, in January. It is understood that the club, composed of 300 members, of the great Democratic organization, accompanied by many ladies, will start on a tour to the far South some time in January, and on their route will pass through several Virginia cities. The cities of Roanoke and Lynchburg, it is said, have extended invitation to the travelers to visit those communities.

Petersburg through its Chamber of Commerce, one of the liveliest communities in the South, will handsomely entertain the club if the in-itation is accepted.

The Democratic Executive Committee of Dinwiddie will meet at the county courthouse next Monday for reorganization and the appointment of judges and clerks to serve at the congressional primary election in January. The county has fifteen voting districts in its limits, and will cast quite a large vote in the primary.

The convict road force is doing good work in Dinwiddie. Some ten or twelve miles of a broad and splendid road has been completed from this city to a point within a short distance of the county courthouse, and the remainder of the road to that point will be completed early in the coming year.

Then the convict force will be transferred to Rowanty District to the main road running from this city towards the North Carolina line.

Negro Sharpers Sent On.

Two negro sharpers—E. A. Taylor and Ferris Saunders, each with aliases and neither to the manner born—were committed to jail by the Police Justice this morning for trial for murder. They played a "bluff" trick on a colored farmer from Brunswick county several days ago, and got $20 of his money.

They were identified in court.

It is roughly estimated that the shipping of liquors out of this city to North Carolina has been running at a

"dry" territory this week aggregated more than $25,000 in value. And this is independent of what has been carried by private hand and conveyance.

Many of the heads of business and industry in this city have this year followed the custom of Collins, of somewhat remembering their employees at Christmas, and this remembrance in some instances was very generous.

Orphans As Guests.

The children of the Petersburg Female orphan asylum were the guests to-day of the Petersburg Elks. They spent the day at the home of Tabb

Stark and right royally were entertained with good things.

In addition a nice present was handed to each girl. Many friends of the orphanage were present to join in their rejoicings.

Masonic Festival.
